

New Jersey Activity Professionals Association Awards Program

Each year NJAPA honors the following individuals for the dedication to those we serve. The awards categories are Activity Professional of the Year, Volunteer of the Year, and Madison E. Weidner Life Achievement Award.

Activity Professional of the Year

This award is given to someone whose outstanding service to the residents has promoted a Positive Image of the Activities Profession in the past year.

Volunteer of the Year Award

This award is for a single volunteer or a volunteer group, who has shown loyalty and dedication to a single resident or to a group of residents.

Madison E. Weidner Life Achievement Award

On September 19th, 1987 the NJAPA Board established this award to honor Dean Madison E. Weidner of Rutgers University; he is the person who pioneered the training course for the Therapeutic Activities Profession in the State of N.J. The purpose of this leadership award is to honor an individual who has a Significant and Profound effect and who has given inspiration, motivation, direction and guidance to the activity profession.
